Bob & Kay
Kurczewski
"Skis"

Liberty Hill, Texas

Kay and Bob "Skis" Kurczewski started dancing in the mid 60's at a very young age. In 1982 Kay attended a cueing course in Germany and started cueing for the local Round Dance Club. In the summer of 1986, they returned from Germany to El Paso, TX, where Bob had his first retirement, that being from the military. From 1990 until 2015 the Ski's accepted the opportunity to conduct a full-time Winter Round Dance Program in the Texas Rio Grande Valley, giving them 25+ years of enjoyment, and 11 summers conducting Round Dance Program in Northern California. They currently live northwest of Austin, TX and conduct a round dance program there.

Their teaching experience includes numerous Conventions and Festivals both in the US and Europe. Their choreography can be found on the "Round-a-Lab Index of Round Dances". The Ski's are Presidents of ICBDA and Vice President of the Texas Round Dance Teachers Association. They are members of Round-A-Lab, DRDC (Dixie Round Dance Council), National Carousel with Club #340, Texas State Callers Association and are Honorary "Life-Time Members" of EAASDC (European Association of American Square Dance Clubs).
